

RUGBY LEAGUE WORLD CUP 2022 DESTINATION & HOTEL GUIDE

This newsletter is providing you with a background on each city/town our 5 tours will be visiting during the World Cup. We are also providing information regarding our hotel selection along with some other worthwhile information regarding the places themselves.

Having over 20 years' experience in providing supporters tours for the greatest game of all we have always prided ourselves with our destination and hotel selection.

We encourage you to see where our hotels are and do some research into where the best pubs/restaurants are nearby. Also, we always recommend never using hotels for your laundry but local laundromats. You will save money as hotels really ramp it up when they do it. That's not to say using the bath in your room to do undies and socks is out of the question. All our hotels have central heating, and you will be surprised on how fast these types of things dry. Again, do some research. It will save you.

Prior to the tour there will be other newsletters so look out for them. All will have important information so you can have the best time on tour. We will cover things like money, mobile phone use, how much you need to pack along with some of our fun tour activities that all go towards our final lunch.

Leeds

England

Leeds in Yorkshire is a true Rugby League city. Its home of the Leeds Rhinos one of the Super Leagues most successful clubs. Not far from Leeds are other Yorkshire Super League Clubs like Castleford, Wakefield, and Bradford. It's also home to the famous soccer Club Leeds United. We will be attending their home ground Elland from the Semi Final that we expect our Aussies to be in.

Leeds's thriving, exciting, dense, and walkable city centre is easily among the best in the UK. In fact, Leeds has been named the best big city in England for standard of living.

Venice & Rome

Italy

Venice, the capital of northern Italy's Veneto region, is built on more than 100 small islands in a lagoon in the Adriatic Sea. It has no roads, just canals – including the Grand Canal thoroughfare – lined with Renaissance and Gothic palaces. The central square, Piazza San Marco, contains St. Mark's Basilica, which is tiled with Byzantine mosaics, and the Campanile bell tower offering views of the city's red roofs. A place people who visit will never forget.

Founded in 753BC Rome is known as the eternal city. Its history spans 28 centuries. There is so much history here you can be quite overwhelmed with it all. Also within the Rome environs is the Vatican City the world's smallest country.

York

England

First and foremost, York also has the most pubs per capita than here else in the UK. But in term of the city itself it's like stepping back into the Middle Ages, with the overhanging timber-framed houses and traditional shopfronts of The Shambles makes it one of the UK's most historic (and picturesque) streets. You can't miss York Minster, one of the largest cathedrals in Northern Europe and also one of the most beautiful gothic cathedrals in the world.

Dublin

Ireland

Dublin, a city that's as intimate as a village and as friendly as an Irish pub. Framed by mountains, centred on a river and edged by a beautiful bay, the city's streets and alleys are filled with vibrant art and historic buildings, hip cafés and traditional "old man" pubs, as Dubliners call them. Walk the streets and you'll feel the energy of over 1,000 years of history, as echoes of the Vikings mix with buzzing boutiques, cobbled streets reverberate with the sounds of buskers, and 18th century parks play host to festivals, film, and food markets.

Have a drink with a local and you will have a friend for life.
